To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to endorse the application of Mr. Scott Bennett for admission to Taft University's juris doctorate program.

Mr. Bennett has been employed by many attorneys in our community to provide paralegal services. This experience has allowed him to develop a strong background in civil and family law. He would be an excellent choice for admission and once licensed to practice, will be an effective representative of the university.

Very truly yours,

Re: Scot L. Bennett

To Whom It May Concern:

The purpose of this letter is to offer my endorsement of Scot L. Bennett as a candidate for your Juris Doctor program.

I have worked with Mr. Bennett since approximately 1992. His analytical, writing, negotiation and interpersonal skills, as well as his knowledge of law and procedure, are as well developed as (and even more than) many attorneys I have known in my many years of practice. In my observation, Mr. Bennett demonstrates sincere concern for our client's best interest while still maintaining the highest professional ethics for my firm. He always maintains a professional persona when dealing with clients, opposing counsel, court staff and Judges. Mr. Bennett has a passion for the law that many practicing attorneys today lack and his understanding of legal theory and principles will make him a formidable litigator. His ability to work independently with minimal supervision is one of his greatest assets and I believe will give him the highest chance of success in your distance learning Juris Doctor program.

I believe Mr. Bennett is an excellent candidate for your law school program and that he will become the kind of attorney our profession and his clients need.

Subject: Scot L. Bennett

Dear Sir or Madam:

The purpose of this letter is to offer my endorsement of Scot L. Bennett as a candidate for your Juris Doctor program.

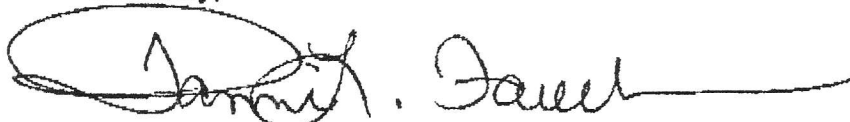

Mr. Bennett worked for my firm for a number of years as a senior paralegal. His analytical skills, writing ability and his knowledge of law and procedure were most impressive when he worked for me and can only have improved since then. His dedication to his career was clear from the many nights he spent working until dawn to meet emergency deadlines to protect our clients' needs. He works independently and was a great asset to my firm and my clients.

I believe Mr. Bennett is an excellent candidate for your distance learning program and will become the kind of attorney our profession needs.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please feel free to contact me directly.

Thank you for your courtesy and cooperation.

Subject: Scot L. Bennett

Dear Sir or Madam:

The purpose of this letter is to offer my endorsement of Scot L. Bennett as a candidate for your Juris Doctor program.

Mr. Bennett worked for me as my primary paralegal and office manager for over ten years. His analytical, writing, negotiation and interpersonal skills, as well as his knowledge of law and procedure, were as well developed as (and even more than) many attorneys I have known in my many years of practice. In my observation Mr. Bennett demonstrated sincere concern for the client's best interest while still maintaining the highest professional ethics for my firm. He was always able to maintain a professional persona, even in the face of the emotionally charged family law cases which comprised the bulk of my practice. His ability to work independently, with minimal supervision was an invaluable asset to my practice.

I believe Mr. Bennett is an excellent candidate for your distance learning program and will become the kind of attorney our profession needs.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please feel free to contact me directly.

Thank you for your courtesy and cooperation.
